New Milk Business—Messrs. A. J. Gragg and A. C. Miller, of this city, have purchased the milk business here before conducted by A. Hesse, and will operate it in the future under the firm name and style of the Sunflower Dairy. The milk will haul from the famous ranch of O. L. Peterson, of the Lewis & Clark, and the new proprietors will be responsible for the maintenance of a high quality of the milk and cream going to their patrons. The deliveries will be made night and morning, in bottle, or in can, at the option of the consumer. These thorough-going young men are certain to make good business they both understand so well, and their patrons are sure to be satisfied if good faith and pure goods can achieve it.

Sixty Day Delay—The failure of the New York concern to carry out its contract with the Astoria Savings Bank people for the construction of the vault doors and appurtenances for the new bank building at Eleventh and Exchange streets, will necessitate a delay in moving the bank offices of practically sixty days, and it is a great disappointment to the officers of the bank as they had hoped to be installed in their new and beautiful quarters by the first of the coming month.

Will Make A Change—Miss Mamie E. Wilson, the popular collector for the Pacific States Telephone & Telegraph Company, in this city, will sever her connection with that company today and on Monday next will enter the service of the Johnson Phonograph Company, taking charge of their parlors on Twelfth street. Miss Wilson will be sadly missed by very many about the first of every month, as she was one of those collectors for whom all hands were on the look-out to see who could pay their telephone bills first.

An Appreciated Gift—Charlie Fowler the Kamm representative in this city, is rejoicing in the possession of a magnificent pair of Elk antlers, presented to him by a friend. They are very large and beautifully balanced as to horns, of which there are twelve. The tips carry a spread of four feet. They will be scientifically dressed and mounted and hung where they will be in evidence with all Mr. Fowler's friends.

Another New Car—Senator Fulton's auto, a huge Thomas Flyer will arrive in Astoria most any day now. It is the same one used by the Senator in Washington and was sent to the shop for a few minor repairs. The manufacturer has shipped it and the Senator is looking forward to the pleasure he will derive from his "bubble" when it does come. It is a magnificent machine unlimited as to speed and made by the firm whose car won third place in the Vanderbilt Cup Race of last year.

Still In The South—H. B. Parker is still in the sunny southland of California and has evidently abandoned his idea of coming back to Astoria for some nice warm weather. The Astorian is just in receipt of some Santa Barbara and Los Angeles papers of recent date sent on by Mr. Parker, and it is quite evident the sun has come down there and tempered his recent objections to the prevalent cold weather.

Off For Alaska—Last evening's express to Portland here from this city Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Jordan, and William McCroskey, all bound for Sitkoh Bay, Alaska, where Mr. Jordan will serve for the coming season as master machinist for the cannery plant of G. T. Meyers, Mr. McCroskey having charge of the donkey-engine there. They expect to be gone for eight months.

Brokenhearted—Ernst Pfund aged 17, died of a broken heart in Portland, Wednesday. The lad was the son of Mrs. Pfund who not long ago committed suicide at her home at Svensen. It was grieving for his mother's rash deed that caused the son's death. The physician in attendance so stated to that effect. The boy was of good character and exceedingly well thought of by all who knew him around Svensen.

Five-Sixths In Hand—At the close of business yesterday Sheriff Pomeroy and his staff of deputies had gathered in about $225,000 of the $270,000 due in taxes on the 1906 roll, or practically five-sixths of the sum on the books. This is keeping well within the lines of collection, and the office force is working night and day to put the records in shape.

Tomorrow Afternoon—The socialists of Astoria are to enjoy an address from one of their distinguished leaders, George H. Goebel, at Carnahan's Hall, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, and will doubtless have a large and enthusiastic house.

All Want the Best—When one goes in search of amusement of a certain kind, as, for instance, a fine line of moving pictures, he wants the best and latest and will not be satisfied with thread-bare and common presentations. In this line, the films now on at the Waldorf are said to be among the real artistic work of that kind programmed in this western country. In all there are six of these realistic strings and all are living portrayals of the leading events of history, such as the "Bennington at San Diego;" the "Transfer of Paul Jones;" the "Two Champion Wrestling Matches of the World;" the "Slums of Paris;" "Monsieur Beaucaire, or the Gentleman Friend;" and others of equal and remarkable fidelity, make up a series of entertaining items not to be discounted in this city.
